

Museum Art Camp at AMA – Summer 2011

The Arlington Museum of Art features professional artists & teachers who lead the Museum Art Camp's week long classes for young artists of all skill levels. The art projects are exciting, interesting and, most of all, lots of FUN! Designed for skill levels appropriate to specific age groups, daily art-making activities incorporate both traditional and non-traditional approaches that enhance each child's creative experiences. The Museum's teacher/student ratio is 1/15 in order to assure supportive, individualized instruction for every AMA young artist! Drinks and snacks are provided daily for campers. At week's end, parents and family are invited to join the AMA's Young Artists at a fun reception celebrating their artwork from their week at Museum Art Camp!
